SPECIAL CLOTHES FOR COLLEGE MEN

No doubt the College Men are keen critics of clothes. They want smart, new styles that look well, fit, and wear well.

We have a special variety of new and exclusive
Fabrics and Fashions in Men's Clothes.

The stylish, well cut, distinctive Suits that we make—in any style you prefer—are up-to-date. The wear is there; we dictate styles too, because every garment we make is modeled on the most recent
New York fashions—and New York is acknowledged to be the Centre of Fashions.

Come in and leave your trial order and you will always deal here.

NEED SWEATERS TO FORM BIG 'M'

Coach Shaughnessy to Address
Last Session Before
Big Game

The meeting of the Rooters' Club, held last evening, was by far the best exhibition of singing and cheering yet provided by this organization. There was a large turnout and everyone present seemed to be anxious to do his utmost to bring the work of the club to the highest stage of efficiency. The boys not only are becoming perfectly familiar with the songs and cheers to be used, but are putting their heart and soul into the work on hand. A goodly number of those who had been present at the meetings held earlier in the week were unable to attend last night, but their absence was not noticed owing to the large number of new recruits to the ranks of the club.

The appearance of Pop Paisley and Jack Hall, the Captain and Manager of the team, provided a very interesting feature of the meeting. The newly elected captain impressed upon those present the great assistance which it was possible for a good Rooters' Club to render a team engaged in a close game. Captain Paisley explained to the men just how much it meant to a team holding the ball on their five-yard line, to hear the cheering of five hundred men who were out to help their team to victory. Both the captain and the manager assured the club that the

SC. UNDERGRADS ARE TO DISCUSS LIBRARY TO-NIGHT

At First Meeting to be Held this Year at 8 O'clock

IN CHEMICAL BLDG.

The first meeting of the Science Undergrad. Society to be held this year is called for this evening in the Chemistry Building at 8 o'clock. The business to be discussed is the question of the library.

For some time past there has been a certain amount of trouble in connection with the library. On different occasions certain volumes were found to be missing, and other disorders have been reported. These and other questions the meeting this evening will attempt to settle for good.

The officers for the year in the Society are:

President—P. C. Montgomery, '15.
Vice-President—E. Perkins, '15.
Secretary—Norman McChay, '16.
Treasurer—W. Sutherland, '16.
Asst. Secretary—James Sharly, '17.
Reporter—H. Johnson, '15.

MARITIME CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Officers Announced For Year,
And Smoker Is Planned

The executive of the Maritime Club held a meeting last night to arrange for a smoker which they propose to hold next week. The committee stated that their officers for the coming year will be as follows:

Hon. President, Dr. McPhail; hon. vice-president, Dr. Charles Sullivan; president, B. D. Kinney, Med. '16; vice-president, F. E. Gullison, Med. '16; secretary, H. S. Everett, Arts '16; treasurer, A. A. Ferguson, Science '15. The executive will be composed of P. P. Logis, C. R. Mackenzie, B. C. Keeping, C. Timarsh and W. H. Hatcher.

A cordial invitation is extended to all Freshmen, especially those from the Eastern Provinces and Newfoundland. The contemplated smoker will probably take place next Friday. Further notice will appear in these columns as to the exact arrangements.

OFFICERS WERE CHOSEN TO LEAD '18

Sci. '18 Organize and Expect to Have Successful Year Despite Small Class

Science '18 held a well attended meeting in the Engineering Building to organize for the session. The following officers were elected for the season of 1914-15:

W. K. Rutherford, president; W. R. Lester, first vice-president; J. B. Waller, secretary; and T. W. Marston, treasurer.

Although the class is smaller than formerly, the year hopes to have a successful session.

Thanksgiving Dinner Monday

Annual Event Is To Be Addressed by H. B. Ames, M.P.

The annual Thanksgiving dinner, given by the McGill Y.M.C.A. to the out-of-town students, will be held October 12th, at 6.30 p.m.

Mr. H. B. Ames, M.P., has graciously consented to give his illustrated lecture on "The Growth of the British Navy."

I wish to particularly emphasize the fact that all students whose homes are out of the city are invited to this banquet.

If any student finds that his name has been overlooked by the Social Committee, he is hereby invited to come anyway.

During this past week the Social Committee has had to work hard to arrange for the different suppers and receptions that have been held in the Hall, and in sending out the invitations it is possible that some names have been overlooked. The out-of-town students are asked, therefore, to attend the dinner, even though they may not have received an invitation. Kindly leave your name at the Hall by Saturday.

(Signed),

E. A. CORBETT,
General Secretary.

REGISTRATION FIGURES SHOW BIG DECREASE

Cambridge Loses 2,000, Edinburgh 1,000, McGill 150;
States Also Suffer

As there has been great discussion about the college concerning the decrease in registration this year a few facts and figures from other universities might prove interesting. As might be expected the British universities are the greatest losers. Cambridge being perhaps the most noticeable in this respect. The registration there shows 1,500 as against 3,500 of last year, or a decrease of 2,000. Edinburgh University reports a slump of 1,000 below normal strength. This, of course, is largely due to enlistments in the British Army, but a slight proportion of the decrease is caused by the departure of German and Austrian reservists to join their native regiments. The Vice-Chancellor of Oxford, in speaking on this subject recently said: "I cannot believe that any of our students were welcomed and loved them. They passed through the innermost circle of our friendship, and I cannot believe that our frank and direct intercourse with them was unrecalled. It is difficult to see how a time of real friendship between Germany and England can ever come again. If this war could have been delayed a few years, possibly there might have been so many private friendships that a state of war might have been impossible."

A great deal of comment has been caused in Britain by the action of Edinburgh University in demanding the resignations of all the German professors. The College which has shown itself most ready to stand by its country in this crisis is Pembroke College, Cambridge, the Sportsman College, from which 200 out of a total of 270 have already gone to the front. The States, of course, have suffered little by the war as the increase of 2,000 at Columbia shows, but then Columbia is an exception. Some colleges report a slight decrease due to the financial stringency. At Texas there is a falling off of over 150 under what was expected.

The McGill figures may be regarded as entirely satisfactory, much more so than a slight decrease. By the end of the week the registration will probably reach 1,425, as compared with 1,575 of last year. The figures from the several faculties may prove interesting. Science is the heaviest loser, showing a decline of 130. A large proportion of this is in the Freshmen year, where a class of 77 is almost half the size of last year. Arts is more fortunate, losing a total of $8,800, but showing a slight increase in the 1st year. Law is normal, while Medicine even shows an increase, the entrance year being larger by 17 than that of 1913. Unfortunately the falling off has been so evenly distributed that the university has been forced to maintain the complete staff in spite of the decrease in revenue, but if the payment of the mortgages on which McGill largely depends for her income, is continued as usual, the results will not be serious, and will quite favourably compare with any other Canadian university.

Futurities

NOTICE TO CANVASSERS.

Owing to the difficulty of finding men at home this week, it has been thought advisable for those who have been unable to cover their lists of names to extend their work over next Monday. All names must be in on Tuesday, October 13th, not later than 5 p.m.

Give a last pull, fellows, and let us reach that 400 mark.

Signed,
"BIBLE STUDY COMMITTEE."

ENGLISH RUGBY.

There will be a practice of the English Rugby Club this afternoon. Full turnout is requested to prepare for the proposed game on Monday morning.

ARCHITECTS.

The annual meeting of the Architectural Association will be held Tuesday, October 13th, at 8.15 o'clock, in the Architectural Lecture Room. The affairs of the association will be discussed.

COMMITTEE OF MCGILL UNION MAKE REPORT

President O'Leary Tells of Repairs to Union Building

MR. RANDALL IS
AGAIN CATERER

Smokers Usually Held After
Home Football Games
To Be Discontinued

Reports of the various standing committees of the Union were received at the opening meeting of the House Committee held on Wednesday afternoon.

The president, Mr. O. Leary reported that during the summer about $800 had been spent on repairs to the building and fixtures. New flooring has been laid in the billiard room and the tables put in first class condition.

The same staff has been employed again this year and Mr. Randall is again in charge of the catering.

It was decided that the smokers usually held after the home football games would be discontinued this year. This has arisen from the fact that throughout the whole of the intercollegiate union, entertainment of visiting teams has been reduced to a minimum.

George Willisroft was appointed as member in charge of the billiard room to take the place of Frank Badgely who has gone to the front with the Canadian contingent.

Members of the committee who were not present will please note that the hour of meeting will be 6.30 p.m. on Thursdays from now on, to avoid clashing with parades of the McGill Regiment.

FIRST MEETING OF FRENCH CLUB TUESDAY NEXT

Prospects Bright For Coming
Season in Spite of Changes
Brought by War

INNOVATIONS

The first meeting of the McGill Cercle Français for the season 1914-15 will be held on Tuesday, October 13th. As heretofore, these meetings will take the form of dinners, at which French only will be spoken, and after which a member or invited guest will give a short talk of interest to the members.

This year, on account of the exceptional circumstances of university life brought about by the war, the executive of the club have decided to hold the meetings every three weeks, instead of every two. It is thought this innovation will be well received by the members, as it not only reduces the amount of time given up to the club, which some of those who are drilling can ill afford, but also brings down the fees, which in these hard times is a consideration not to be overlooked. In regard to the latter, estimates are now being collected by the executive from various catering establishments, and it is expected that the fees will be reduced to $3.00.

It is requested that old members, who intend rejoining the club this year, will hand in their names as soon as possible to any of the following: H. E. Scott, Law '16; W. E. Dunton, Arts '17; L. H. Ballantyne, Arts '15. There are a few vacancies in the membership, which is in fact thirty, so that prospective members should immediately communicate with one of the above.

The time and place of the first meeting will be announced shortly, and the meeting.

SUNDAY "SINGS."

The Sunday evening "sings" held around the grate-fire at the Hall are to be resumed next Sunday evening. All students are invited to spend a social hour after church in this way. Refreshments will be served.

EXECUTIVES '17.

A meeting has been called of the executive of the second year and the presidents of the Sophomore years in the several faculties, to be held at Strathcona Hall to-day at 4 p.m.

EQUITATION.

It was announced last night that the class in Equitation would close with a membership of twenty. There is room for three more men to-night, so any desirous of joining this class should apply at once to Mr. Shipman at the Montreal Riding Academy on Hutchison street.

BAND.

Members of the McGill Rooters' Band are specially reminded of the marching practice at 4.15 this afternoon.

Members will meet in the Front Room at Strathcona Hall. Please be on time.

CITAS, R. GIBBS,
Director.

OTTAWA.

Anyone desiring to make the trip to Ottawa on Monday may obtain tickets from Mr. McVillie. The club rates, good going and returning on Monday, will be $3.25. Tickets good over the week-end may be obtained for $4.30.

NOTICE.

The Board of the 1916 Annual would like any student knowing of any member of the staff, graduate, or undergraduate, who has enlisted for active service in the present war, to communicate the names of such men to the secretary, Jas. P. Grigg, Arts '16, or telephone Up 2417.

THE RETURN OF DR. COLBY

The opening of the session 1914-15 brings with it an event which has been looked forward to for some time. Every autumn since 1910 the rumour has gone about, only to be contradicted in a few days, that Dr. Colby was about to resume his lectures in History. This time, however, our hopes have not been disappointed.

On Wednesday Dr. Colby began a series of lectures, which is to extend through the current session, on "The Political and Diplomatic History of Modern Europe." No one who reads the programme issued by the Department of History can fail to see the highly interesting and instructive nature of the course, which, as it will deal particularly with events leading up to the Great European War, is especially valuable at the present time. To have a man of Dr. Colby's ability addressing us on such a subject is a privilege, of which all who can, should take advantage.

These lectures afford us another example of the opportunities offered by the modern university. It is not so very long since that so modern a theme would have been frowned upon by the learned Faculty, who would fain have consoled our minds in a crisis like the present by greater application to the classics and to philosophy.

To-day, however, current events are looked upon as a legitimate theme for university investigation, and it is due to this change of view that we can listen in the class-room to such lectures as Dr. Colby is now giving.

U. OF T. SCRAPS

From an article appearing in "The Varsity" one would infer that the students of the School of Science had engaged in a scrap which terminated so seriously that the Students' Administrative Council were obliged to pass a resolution fining the Freshmen and Sophomore classes five hundred dollars. We at McGill feel proud of our first second year, whose surplus energy is put into drilling, while the useless and barbarous custom of "scrapping" has been done away with.

The Freshmen-Sophomore meet takes place on Monday, when these two bodies will engage in athletic contest. We will then be able to point to our two first years, as an example to other universities, how Freshmen and Sophomores can come together in a manly and becoming manner. Besides we have no time this year for such foolish acts.

McGill Twenty-Four Months Ago

From The McGill Daily of Wednesday, October 9th, 1912

McGill triumphed over Ottawa last Saturday, the score being 20 to 5. The college played a surprisingly fine game, and it was not for the fine work of Billington, Laing and Lee, assisted by the clever playing of the backs, McGill might have lost to their Varsity.

Macdonald College re-opens its doors to-day. Once more the corridors and class-rooms will be filled with bustle and excitement. The College is divided into three parts. The School of Agriculture, the School for Teachers and the School of Household Science. Macdonald College, which is incorporated with McGill University, was founded, erected, equipped and endowed by Sir William C. Macdonald, the generous benefactor who has done so much for education in Quebec and in Canada at large.

Mr. C. A. Carter, head of the student department of the V.M.C.A. in North America, delivered an excellent address in Strathcona Hall to about one hundred students. The subjects of the address was "The Students of the World."

McGill English Rugby team defeated the Winged Wheel star players to the tune of 16 to 0.

What The Graduates Are Doing At Home and in Foreign Parts

Some Interesting Accounts of What Is Happening to Those of Us who Have Left the Alma Mater.

Arthur Yates, Arts '08, and Rhodes scholar, was in Munich with his bride when the war broke out. They were lucky enough to get through the war zone practically unmolested and are now safely back in St. Hyacinthe.

Dr. Rogers, Med. '14, who has been for some time an interne in the R.V. H., was notified that he had been appointed chief medical officer of the Fourth A.S.C. and on a few hours' notice he was ready to go down to Valcartier. He is now on his way to the front with the Service Corps.

For the first time in the history of McGill a duplicate parchment was presented to a graduate in Medicine at the last convocation. The recipient was Dr. James Grant, the hero of the Empress disaster. Principal Peterson spoke of the extraordinary conditions which he thought justified the unprecedented action.

Sir William Osler, Regius Professor of Medicine at Oxford, has been elected foreign associate of the Academy of Medicine at Paris. This latest honor fell to McGill's most famous graduate in Medicine last summer.

A marriage of much interest to the students of the R.V.C. was celebrated on Saturday, Sept. 19, when Miss Olive A. Reinhardt was married to Mr. Gordon Russell Langley. Miss Reinhardt graduated a year ago with the class of '13. The ceremony was performed at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Peterborough, and afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Langley left for a western tour. Among the Montrealers present were Miss Eleanor Coates and Miss Dorothy Duff.

Don Henry, Arts '14, managing editor of last year's Daily, has completed his theological course at Vancouver during the past summer. Don will be inducted into one of the Presbyterian churches of that city about the middle of the month.

E. P. Dale-Harris, Arts '13, has spent the past year at Christ Church, Oxford. He made a name for himself at rowing, gaining a place in the first boat of his college. He is now trying to get a commission to go against the Germans.

Bert French, Arts '12, and past president of the Arts Undergrad, is another Oxford man. When seen a few days ago on the campus, he was preparing to return to Oxford in the hope of getting a commission in the army.

B. Elmo Atkins, Arts '13, has added another to the long list of McGill men who have gained Rhodes scholarships. "Tommy" was chosen as the representative from B. C. last spring and passed through the city a few weeks ago. He will be well remembered for his all-round interest in college activities.

George R. Kendall, Sci. '03, passed through Montreal this summer.

At the present time he is registrar of McGill B.C., and spends his spare time teaching chemistry to the uninitiated. While here he told of stealing apples from the orchard where the new Medical Building now stands. Such has been McGill's growth in the past few years.

Norman Johnson and Dana Wilgress, who graduated with honours in Economics last spring, are now residing in Ottawa. They hold positions in the Trade Commissioners' Office and are being prepared for duties abroad.

H. H. Hepburn, Med. '10, with his friend, Dr. A. L. Lickwood, no sooner escaped from Berlin to London, than they joined the Royal Army Medical Corps, turned around and started back again. They expect to visit the German capital again in the course of a few months. They were the first Canadians to leave for the front.

Other recent McGill graduates in Medicine who have sailed for England with the intention of going to the front are G. Stuart Ramsey, "Jimmie" Lee, "Josh" Gardner and Edgar Bruenau.

Dr. Colby Appears for the First Time Since 1910 as Head of History

The Political and Diplomatic History of Modern Europe

For the first time in five years, Dr. Colby, head of the Department of History, made his appearance in the Faculty of Arts. He has arranged to give a half course to the Third and Fourth years covering the Political and Diplomatic history of Modern Europe from 1815 to 1914.

Songs to be Sung by Rooters For McGill at Saturday's Game

With These Tunes the Boys of the Red and White Will Be Cheered on to Victory

I.
HAIL! ALMA MATER.

Hail! Alma Mater, we sing to thy praise!
Great our affection, the feeble our lays.
Nestling so peaceful and calm 'neath the hill;
Fondly we love thee, our dear old McGill.

Hail! Alma Mater, we sing to thy praise;
Loud in thy honor, our voices we raise.
Full to thy fortune our glasses we fill,
Life and prosperity, dear old McGill.

Hail! Alma Mater, thy praises we sing,
Far down the centuries still may they ring;
Long thro' the ages remain, if God will—
Queen of the colleges, dear old McGill.

II.
TO THE TUNE OF TAMMANY.

James McGill! James McGill!
Peacefully he slumbers there,
Blissful though we're on a "tear,"
James McGill! James McGill!
He's our father, well yes, rather,
James McGill!

III.
William C. William C.
He doth make our College run,
Giving William P. the "Mon."
William C. William C.
Altho' it funny, so much money,
William C.!

IV.
Old McGill, Old McGill,
Varsity can go to—
R. M. C. and Queen's as well
Old McGill, Old McGill,
Race them, chase them. Race them,
chase them,
Old McGill!

V.
TUNE: IT'S A LONG, LONG WAY TO TIPPERARY.

It's a big day for Old McGill, boys,
It's a big day to-day,
Because we're going to beat Toronto
That's what all the fellows say.
We'll cheer for Old McGill, boys
'Cause our hearts are all so gay.
Yes, it's hard, hard luck for old Toronto,
But we'll win to-day.

VII.
TO THE TUNE OF TIPPERARY.

So it's good-bye to old Toronto,
And it's farewell to Queen's,
We are sorry we've got to trim you,
But the championship it means.
Shag only turns out winners,
Since he is a bear.

And the whole team is made up of lions,
For we'll win to-day.

VIII.
TO THE TUNE OF "TD DO AS MUCH FOR YOU."

Rah—we're going to win to-day, boys,
Rah—we're on our way,
Rah—we've got the team to do it,
Watch them take the ball down the field,
Buck it over fellows,
Rah—McGill is always leading,
Rah—we're on our way,
We are always winning,
For we're always winning,
Rah, Rah, we're going to win to-day.

XI.
(TUNE MARCHING THROUGH GEORGIA.)

Now our team is on the field, ev'ry nerve and muscle tingle,
And determined that they'll win or die to-day,
See those fellows sure and strong,
Ready all the line along,
Varsity will have to break and fade away.

Chorus:
Cheer them, cheer for Old McGill, boys,
Raise your voices in a song,
We must beat them on the field,
We're out to win to-day,
And the team in Red and White will move along.
When the ball is put in play just you watch us break away,
And the team of once go marching down the field,
Varsity will fight in vain, tho' they try with might and main,
And their goal to us they'll surely have to yield.

Chorus:
Cheer, then, cheer, etc.

X.
RULE BRITANNIA.

When Britain first at Heaven's command,
Arose from out the azure main,
This was the charter, the charter of the land,
And guardian angels sang this strain:
Chorus:
Rule Britannia, Britannia rules the waves.

XII.
TUNE—"EVERYBODY TWO-STEP," CHORUS.

Ev'rybody turn out and yell for Old McGill,
Ev'rybody turn out and join the rooting drill,
Give your yell with all your might,
Ev'rybody turn out and turn out right,
If you want to turn out, don't think you shouldn't dare.
Ev'rybody does it—Nobody ought to care,
Ev'rybody wiggle, waggle—then you start a row, Ev'rybody turn out now.

XIII.
TUNE, "WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH FATHER."

What's the matter with George Laing? he's all right.
What's the matter with Jeffrey? he's all right.
Now all you fellows from Old McGill,
Cheer that team till their hearts do thrill,
What's the matter with our team? they're all right.

THE MILITARY HAPPENINGS AT OLD MCGILL

PROVISIONAL REGIMENT ORDERS ISSUED

REASONS OF ITS ESTABLISHMENT GIVEN

Containing Explanations and Regulations Governing the C.O.T.C. and the Provisional Regiment of McGill University—Conditions of Service—Special Corps of Both Engineers and Meds. to be Formed for Active Service

RELATION TO THE FUTURE CANADIAN CONTINGENTS GOING TO FRONT

Society and Council Consider It Their Duty to Assist in Helping University Men to Train For Service at the Front—Hope to Have Large Increase in Recent List

MCGILL UNIVERSITY PROVISIONAL REGIMENT.

REASONS WHY IT HAS BEEN ESTABLISHED IN ADDITION TO THE MCGILL CONTINGENT C.O.T.C.

At the close of Session 1913-14 the strength of the McGill Contingent C.O.T.C. was only twenty-three efficient members. As an expression of the University's active patriotism this was inadequate. As a result of the war a great demand for military training was made by Graduates and Undergraduates. At the same time the active functions of the C.O.T.C., namely to train men for Certificates A and B, granted by the British War Office, were suspended by the official announcement that no further examinations for Certificates of this class would be held until peace was restored. As a means of assisting in the work for victory in the present war, a great development of the C.O.T.C. was therefore clearly necessary. It was felt, moreover, that to train men in large numbers in the C.O.T.C. would do more harm than good by diverting into channels, immediately unproductive, efforts which could better be employed. The future so had to be provided for. Experience had shown that under conditions of peace comparatively few students are prepared to do military training and to add to their University work the means negligible amount of study required to obtain Military Certificates A and B. It was felt that many students while unable to afford the time to study for Officers' Certificates could willingly undergo the lesser amount of training required to make themselves individually efficient soldiers of the militia type. Further, it was felt that any movement which could stimulate military interest in the University could not fail to have beneficial effect upon the movement which the establishment of the Officers' Training Corps is the outward expression.

To prevent any possibility of clash of interest between the McGill Contingent C.O.T.C. and the new Provisional Regiment, Major A. C. Geddes, Commanding the C.O.T.C. Contingent, was asked to act as Battalion Organizer. Only after this co-operation was secured was the organization of the Regiment proceeded with.

A CAMPBELL GEDDES, Major, Commanding McGill Contingent, C.O.T.C. Battalion Organizer McGill University Regiment, October 7, 1914.

MCGILL UNIVERSITY PROVISIONAL REGIMENT.

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE.

The immediate object of the McGill University Provisional Regiment is to get as many University men as possible to undergo military training to fit themselves for service.

To prevent any being discouraged or prevented from enrolling by fear of their future inability to comply with hard and fast rules, it has been decided that no undertaking for prolonged service will be exacted from those who wish to join.

Each man who joins is understood to have accepted for himself the duty of making himself an efficient soldier of the militia type and to have agreed to serve with the regiment throughout the duration of the war, provided he continues to be resident in Montreal.

Later, when the war emergency passes, definite conditions of enlistment will be introduced.

Regulations governing the issue of uniforms will be published in Regimental Orders shortly.

Recruiting proceeds daily at the C.

O.T.C. Army from 4.15 to 7.15

A CAMPBELL GEDDES, Major, Commanding McGill Contingent, C.O.T.C. Battalion Organizer McGill University Regiment, October 7, 1914.

MCGILL UNIVERSITY PROVISIONAL REGIMENT.

The Graduates' Society and Students' Council of McGill determined that McGill should raise a Regiment for the following reasons:—

1. It is extremely desirable that all citizens of the Empire should demonstrate to the whole world their determination to see this war through to victory. Firstly, to strengthen the hands of the Government in prosecuting the war to a successful issue; secondly, to show the Empire's enemies that they may entertain no hopes of determination on the part of the people who are the Empire, is vain.

2. To enable the Graduates and Undergraduates of McGill University to demonstrate to the people of Canada that they, who claim through fuller education to serve their day and generation as leaders and subordinate leaders of public thought and life, recognize the privileges and duties of citizenship as fully, if not more fully, than their fellow countrymen.

3. The need for trained men in the fighting line is great, and is likely before victory is won, to be greater. It therefore appeared to the Society and Council to be their duty to assist in every way in helping University men to train themselves for service at the front.

A CAMPBELL GEDDES, Major, Commanding McGill Contingent, C.O.T.C. Battalion Organizer McGill University Regiment, October 7, 1914.

RELATION OF THE PROVISIONAL REGIMENT TO FUTURE CANADIAN CONTINGENTS AND DRAFTS PROCEEDING TO THE SEAT OF WAR.

It is not contemplated that the McGill Provisional Regiment as such should now or at any future time volunteer for active service, as a unit. It is contemplated that a number of the men receiving training in its ranks will volunteer for active service. It is hoped that such volunteering will be on such a scale that complete companies may be formed of McGill men to proceed to the front. It is further hoped that men of other Canadian Universities will volunteer in such numbers that a complete Canadian Universities Battalion may be formed to go on active service. The other Universities of Canada are being approached by the McGill Graduate Society with the formation of such a Canadian Universities Battalion directly in view.

It is further contemplated that Engineering and Medical students whose specialist civil training is of direct military value and who have received some elementary military training in the ranks of the Provisional Regiment should be encouraged to volunteer for service in units in which their specialist civil training could be made militarily useful, for example, in Medical and Engineering units. It is hoped that such volunteering will be on a scale to make it possible to send either McGill University or Canadian Universities Medical and Engineering Units to the front.

A CAMPBELL GEDDES, Major, Commanding McGill Contingent, C.O.T.C. Battalion Organizer McGill University Regiment, October 7, 1914.

FROM 1914 INFANTRY TRAINING INSTRUCTION IN FORCE IN ARMY

Taken From the Latest Manual of Infantry Training for the Benefit of Anyone Connected with the Military Movement at McGill—Sections 42 to 46

42. The formation of fours and elementary training in march discipline.

1. Column of fours is the ordinary marching formation of infantry on a road, and is then known as column of route. The greatest attention should be paid to training the recruit to keep the prescribed distance from, and to cover exactly, the man in front. Order, comfort, and the reduction of fatigue depend on the maintenance of exact distance by each four. Exact covering and dressing when moving in fours is to be kept even when marching at ease, unless orders to the contrary are issued.

43. FORMING FOURS.

1. In line in two ranks at the halt. Form—Fours. The first files will take a pace of 30 inches back with the left foot, and then a side pace of 27 inches with the right foot so as to cover their right files. In this formation the squad will stand in fours. Form—Two-deep. The left files will move to their original position in line by taking a side pace of 27 inch, with the left foot and a pace forward of 30 inches with the right; or if the squad has been turned about while in fours, a side pace with the right foot and a pace back with the left.

44. MOVEMENTS IN FOURS.

1. Changing direction. Right (or Left)—Wheel. The inner man of the leading four will move round a quarter of the circumference of a circle having a radius of 4 feet, stepping out to enable the other men of the four to wheel with him. When the quarter circle is completed the four leads on in the new direction. The other fours in succession will follow in the footsteps of the leading four, without increasing or diminishing their distances from each other or altering the time.

45. THE PASSAGE OF OBSTACLES.

1. When a stream, ditch, bank, or similar obstacle is to be crossed it will generally be found better to increase rather than diminish the front by causing men to open out gradually before they arrive at the obstacle.

2. It is frequently advisable to point out a place on the far side of the obstacle, and order the men to form up in a named formation at that place; each man will then find his own way across.

3. If a line is to pass a narrow place, its front may be reduced by forming fours, file, or single file to a flank or forwards; or fours may be formed and closed to a flank or on the centre.

4. If a narrow place has to be passed through in column it is important to avoid checks. It is therefore advisable to increase the pace during the passage, if it is not so long as to cause undue fatigue to the men.

46. DISMISSING WITH OR WITHOUT ARMS.

Squad—Dismiss. The squad will turn to the right, and, after a pause, break off quietly and leave the parade ground.

Notes.—If the squad is under arms, arms will be slung before the squad is dismissed (except in rifle regiments). But on wet days, to avoid damaging the uniform with wet rifles, troops may be dismissed at the order.

If an officer is on parade the men will salute together before they break off.

McGILL TO BE WELL REPRESENTED SOLDIERS JOVIAL EMBARKATION

Tone of Cheerfulness Conspicuous Right Up to the Moment of Embarking—Men Enjoy the Prospect of Marching on Berlin

Every day brings in reports of some McGill undergraduates who have gone to the war. So far it is not definitely known how many of these men have actually gone; one undergraduate who visited the camp at Valcartier said he saw about five hundred McGill men there; this estimate, of course, was intended to include graduates of McGill, but even then it seems as if it is somewhat exaggerated.

A report, supposedly from Toronto, says that five hundred men from Varsity went down to Valcartier to train, that number also includes graduates. At Varsity the number of undergraduates last year was given out to be about five hundred, while McGill only had about sixteen or seventeen hundred. The number of McGill men gone to the front is probably not more than one hundred and fifty or one hundred and seventy-five; this would make the proportion about equal between the two universities.

Following are the names of some more men who have left McGill to go to the front, and who declared themselves determined to eat their Christmas dinner in Berlin.

H. T. C. WHITLEY.
Harry Whitley, from Ottawa, went to St. Albans School, Brockville, where he was one of the shining lights on the hockey team. In 1911 Whitley came to McGill and joined the class of Arts '15, but changed next year to Medicine '17. Last year he played hockey for his class team and took a prominent part in the King Cook celebration.

Whitley has held a commission in the Artillery in Ottawa for the last two or three years, and when war was declared he went down to Valcartier with a detachment from his regiment.

From the transport, which was just about to leave for the other side, he sent a card to a college chum, which echoed the tone of all the McGill men at Valcartier—cheerfulness, at the prospect of going to the front.

S. B. LINDSAY.
"Stan" Lindsay hails from Montreal. He, too, went to St. Albans' School and entered McGill in 1911, after a couple of years in business. Lindsay was in Architecture '15, and played on his class football team last year. For about three years he has held a lieutenant's commission in the 5th Royal Highlanders, and at the outbreak of war he went down to Valcartier with the first detachment of his regiment, and went over with them when the first contingent embarked a couple of weeks ago.

If the first contingent retain their cheerfulness, which has been very apparent so far, when they reach the front, the German soldiers will wonder, from afar, at the light-heartedness of Canada's men. At first, there were some complaints about camp conditions at Valcartier, but these conditions were soon bettered, and when news came that the first contingent was to start, personal comforts or discomforts were entirely forgotten in the universal desire "to reach Berlin."

LOWER PRICE FOR ROOTERS SATURDAY

members of the team were with the Rooters to the last gasp. A reciprocal spirit was shown the Rooters by the rendering of "We're Out For Gores" in "their own gentle way."

The meeting to be held to-night in Strathcona Hall will see the final preparations for the big game. Both those who have already attended, and those who have not yet been out, are requested to make a special effort to be at this meeting. The Football Club and the Students' Council have consented to a reduced price of admission to those belonging to the Rooters' Club, and special Rooters' tickets can be obtained at to-night's practice for thirty-five cents instead of the usual charge of half a dollar. These tickets will ensure the holder to a seat in the section in the centre of the east side bleachers being reserved for the rooters. Only those who are present at to-night's meeting will be able to secure these tickets.

Coach Shaughnessy is to be in attendance at the last session before Saturday's struggle, and will have something to say in the way of advice and encouragement. It is extremely desirable that as many as possible should come to the game, wearing red sweaters in order that a big "C" of generous dimensions may be formed in the Rooters' stand. Every form of red and white decoration will be welcomed, and it is hoped that everyone will carry a small cane and pennant of some description. Full particulars concerning the parade which will precede the game will be provided at to-night's session.

ENTRIES FOR SPORTS CLOSED FOR FRESH-SOPH. TRACK MEET.

A Large Number Signed Up, and a Very Successful Monday Afternoon Is Expected by All

Entries for the sports on Monday closed last night. An unexpectedly large number of men have entered in the various events, particularly in the three sprints, the mile and the broad and high jumps. The number of Freshmen entered is especially encouraging, and the Sophs will have to go some to hold up their end of the argument. Al Heron is the only '17 man entered in the 100, 220 and 440, and although the Sophs are well represented as to quality by him, still quantity always counts especially with Hillier and Fraser as part of it.

The 880 is anybody's race, with Hugh Crombie and F. S. Parsons, both of '17, apparently a little better than any of the other three entries. Hugh Crombie and Jack Rutherford '17, together with Bill Autliff '18 should give an exciting exhibition in the mile. Crombie on his "rep." should take it, but unfortunately he has been rather under the weather lately, and may not be in his best form on Monday.

In the three mile event Autliff and Gorré are both first class men. Gorré, of '17, won this event for the Freshmen last year, but this is Bill Autliff's pet distance, so the Freshies may have a chance to cheer for '18. Dan Sutherland, one of the Sophs' strongest men, will probably win the three weight events, though Ross Hutchinson is more than likely to make things interesting for Dan in the discus. Both these men have broken the college record for throwing the discus in practice.

The pole vault is another event which anyone of the five entries may take. On past records Bill Autliff should win, as he has once cleared 9 ft. 5 in., but he has been unable to come anywhere near this mark lately.

Jack Farthing '18, is certainly the class in the broad jump, in spite of the fact that eleven men at all told try for this event, as to in the high jump three more Freshmen, Smelzer, Autliff and Loughery will likely fight it out among themselves, although Dan

SCRIMMAGE WAS NOT ATTEMPTED BY THE FIRST TEAM YESTERDAY

Owing to Slippery Field, but Shaughnessy Kept Them Busy on Signals and Gave Particular Attention to the Defensive Side of the Team's Work

ARRANGEMENTS MADE TO PLAY OTTAWA ON MONDAY

A Large Number of McGill Supporters Are Expected to Witness This Game so the Visiting Team Will Not Lack Backing

No hard work was attempted at the practice yesterday afternoon, Shaughnessy evidently considered that the footing was too unreliable to authorize his sending the men into hard scrimmages, and consequently he only allowed them to work out their signals thoroughly. Particular attention was paid to the defensive side of the team's work. The second team were given the ball and used all the plays which they now have in their repertoire. The coach was thus given an opportunity of showing his men how best to line up to meet the attacks of their opponents. It was especially the line of secondary defense that came in for a drilling in their formations. A marked improvement took place in their work during the drill. Smith was played in McGill's place, the latter not being out at the practice.

George Laing was used at centre half, with Paisley and Jeffrey filling in the other two places on the back division. This will in all probability be the way they will line up against Varsity to-morrow afternoon. Both George and Jeff were punting better than they have on former occasions this fall. They tried some drop kicks and managed to put the ball over the bar several times. Not once last season was Shag able to use this valuable means of running up points, as there was not a man on the team who could be relied upon to even get a drop kick away quickly enough to allow of his taking a chance by using it. Both the two men who were trying this kick yesterday have been practicing it for some time now, and have improved somewhat, though they are not yet what might be called strong men in this department.

All the plays were run off much more smoothly than has been the case in the work-outs held earlier in the week. The men seem to have become thoroughly cognizant with the signals, and no hitches that were noticeable from the side-lines occurred during the practice. Monty played quarter practically all the time the team was on the field. He is at present handling the men to perfection, and would be hard to improve upon. He has a habit of talking to the men all the time, which helps materially in keeping them on their toes. Once or twice, however, he seemed to be a little slow in picking the ball up when it was heeled out. It appeared from the side lines as if he was looking up too soon.

Outside wing has not been decided upon as yet, though the present favorites for the position are Rodden and Kennedy. These two when they are going well will be able to stand any amount of hard work, and are both fairly fast men. Kennedy especially so, as it will be remembered that it was he who used to get down under Fitz- little's long punts and be right there to tackle his man. Smith, who last year was given a try-out on our second team, has been tried at outside by Varsity, where he is now studying. He was never particularly remarked for his playing while at McGill, and if he can catch a place on the Varsity team it argues that they must have a fairly weak line. Waterous and Lemay are practically sure of the two middle wing positions. With Brown, Trapp and Waterous sure of being here for this first game, there is any amount of men for the positions on the wing line. Brown and Hughes will be the inside, unless something very untoward happens between now and the start of the game. Trapp, Rod and McCall will probably hold down the places in the scrimmage.

Quilly showed up well in the play yesterday afternoon, and seems to have fully mastered the signals, and the style of play which Shaughnessy relies upon.

The second team is going well, and the men are fighting hard for the positions left vacant by the graduation of last season's intermediate stars.

Another practice will be held to-day, at which the finishing touches will be put on for the game to-morrow.

De Muth told the Daily representative yesterday that he was not going to turn out this season, as he had found that he was going to have a very hard academical year, and also that his foot was not getting better as fast as might be expected. He was the only absentee, outside of McCall, from the senior squad yesterday.

Final arrangements have been concluded for the game with Ottawa on Monday. The regular team will be taken along, and as they are many, McGill men in the Capital, a large crowd of supporters of the Red and White is sure to be present to cheer the men on.
